

Young Planners Group

North Carolina APA

What is the Young Planners Group?

The Young Planners Group (YPG) is a committee of the North Carolina chapter of the American Planning Association (NCAPA). YPG focuses on helping young professional planners establish social and professional relationships with their peers and experienced planning professionals through career-building programs, social events, and mentoring opportunities.

Membership

YPG is open to professionals age 35 and under and to students. YPG members represent a wide array of professionals and students from many backgrounds. Membership in the YPG is included with your APA or NCAPA membership (please request YPG membership form). All young planners and professionals are welcome to attend any YPG event or program. However, by becoming a member of the NCAPA and YPG you will be eligible for free or reduced program and event fees and have access to many other benefits.
