

NORTH CAROLINA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN PLANNING ASSOCIATION 2016 SUMMER FELLOWSHIP

Mission Statement of the Diversity Committee

The Diversity Committee is a working committee within the North Carolina Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA-NC). Our mission is to increase diversity within the planning profession. The Committee actively promotes diversity among planners and planning-related organizations in North Carolina. Recognizing the unique values, ideas and perspectives offered by a diverse workforce, the Committee establishes ongoing networking and education forums to foster awareness and action towards increasing diversity within the planning profession.

The Purpose:

The goal of the fellowship is to encourage more minority students to pursue undergraduate and graduate degrees in planning in an effort to increase diversity among professional planners who contribute to the profession. Increased awareness of diversity in the planning profession may help improve equity issues in the profession and within the diverse neighborhoods, towns, cities and regions in which planners serve.

Eligibility: The $1,500 fellowship is available to:

- Women and members of one of the following minority groups – African American, Hispanic American or Native American.
- Full time graduate or undergraduate student enrolled in urban planning and related fields at any accredited University in North Carolina. Students at NC Historically Black Colleges and Universities are especially encouraged to apply. Undergraduate students must be a sophomore, junior or senior and graduate student applicants must be in good academic standing and within their 1st, 2nd or 3rd year of full time enrollment. Acceptable majors are listed on the next page.
- Students who maintain a minimum G.P.A. of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
- Students who intend to work as practicing planners.

Application Process:

1. The applicant should submit ONE application package that includes the following materials:
 - ❖ Scholarship Application
 - ❖ Personal Statement
 - ❖ Two Letters of Recommendation
 - ❖ One Sealed Official Academic Transcript for each college or university attended (should be sent directly from the institution(s)).
2. A Selection Committee of three to four persons from the Diversity Committee will review applications and determine award winners. Applications will be judged using the following criteria, listed in order of importance: 1) commitment to planning as reflected in personal statement, 2) academic achievement and/or improvement 3) letters of recommendation.
3. APA-NC President will announce the name of the award recipient in May 2016.
4. The fellowship will begin on June 1, 2016 and end on or before August 30, 2016. The $1,500 fellowship will be paid directly to the student to pay for expenses incurred during the academic year in installments per month for three consecutive months during the time of service. The fellow shall work to complete a service project as defined by the members of the Executive Committee. Project examples include conference planning, conducting policy research, and coordination of special projects.

Deadline:

All materials must be received by Friday, April 8, 2016. The fellowship recipient will be notified in May 2016 and work will begin on June 1, 2016. The fellow will be acknowledged during the 2016 Fall APA-NC Conference in Asheville, NC.

Note: Prior winners of any APA-NC-administered fellowship or scholarship program are not eligible.

Dear Colleague:

How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity?

The Diversity Fellowship of the NC American Planning Association is designed to foster increased interest and participation among minorities in urban planning as undergraduate and graduate fields of study and as a professional career. As more minority students are encouraged to choose planning as a career, the profession should become more sensitive to the diverse needs of the publics it serves. In keeping with this purpose, the letter of recommendation should comment on the candidate's capabilities, talents, and commitment to community service.

Please attach letter of recommendation to form.
